Gentlemen:

I shall be passing through Honolulu on my way to the Far East on 9/10 May 1963, and should like to refresh pleasant memories by stopping at the Halekulani. If you have a modest single room available for Thursday evening, 9 May 1963, through the evening of Friday, 10 May 1963, would you set it aside in my name and send a brief confirmation. My plane will be arriving very late (11:00 p. m.) on Thursday and the reservation should note this.

Very truly yours,
